

China Wants To Buy A Big Piece Of Facebook

Die Nachricht des Tages: „China wants to buy a huge chunk of Facebook, a source at a fund that buys stock from former Facebook employees tells us. (...) Separately, a second source tells us there is a rumor going around Facebook that Citibank is at this very moment trying to acquire as much as $1.2 billion worth of Facebook stock on behalf of two sovereign wealth funds – China’s and another from the Middle East.“

Das kann ich nur auf’s Schärfste begrüßen – das passt doch zusammen wie Arsch auf Eimer (Credits)
