

Open Letter: Dear friends and supporters of Wikileaks,

Renata Avila, Guatemala City, August 15th. 2011:

„I am a human rights and information rights lawyer working in Central America. I met both Daniel Domscheit-Berg and Julian Assange during the summer of 2008 at the Global Voices conference in Budapest. Since then Mr. Domscheit-Berg and I kept in touch via e-mail and instant messaging service. (...) The purpose of this letter goes beyond clarifying Mr. Assange's behavior. It is a reflection and an invitation to move the conversation to what is relevant, what is urgent and how to behave accordingly.“
