I got this fire in me oder: First North American Expeditionary Force

The Islamic State has been able to attract various foreigners to its side in the escalating conflict in the Middle East, but now some Canadian veterans are joining Kurdish fighters in an attempt to beat back the extremist group in Iraq and Syria. (…) „I got put on this Earth to do one thing," one veteran told CBC, declining to identify himself. „I got this fire in me. I still want to soldier on."

Wieso eigentlich „first"?