

Donald Trump will win the US presidency by a landslide

Interessante Analyse vom Independent:

„A recent poll even had Trump behind Clinton, by only 0.3 per cent. His momentum is upward. Do you see where this is heading? Clinton will get fewer votes than Obama. Trump will get out far more first-time voters than the Republicans have ever achieved before, while regular Republican voters will hold their noses and punt for Trump. Unless the left stop dreaming up reasons for Trump to lose, and start campaigning like he might win, the 2016 election will be the landslide for Trump.“
