

Left-wing people are middle-class people

Wortharguingfor.com:

Nowadays left-wing people are middle-class people. Working class people are a big disappointment to left-wing people. Left wing people now think that working class people are:

- a) Simple and easily led*
- b) Un-enlightened and susceptible to short-term pleasures*
- c) Terribly sad and struggling, unable to cope on their own*
- d) All of the above*

Wie wahr. Middle-class people like to speak Gendersprech too.
