

Clinton is the problem, not Trump

Slavoj Žižek redet im „Guardian“ wieder Klartext, aber die, die er meint, werden nicht hinhören: „Clinton is the problem, not Trump“.

„Žižek, a frequent critic of both capitalism and the shortcomings of the modern left, said liberals focus too much on social issues, such as LGBT rights and racism, and on new right-leaning factions. The cost? The majority of working-class voters may not hear what's in it for them.“ (Big Think)
