Deutsche Welle: „Peking hat massenhaft Masken und andere Medizingüter ans Ausland geliefert und seine Epidemie in den Griff bekommen. Trotzdem sieht es sich fälschlich beschuldigt. Der Sinologe Felix Wemheuer versucht eine Erklärung.“

In Deutschland sind die Einschränkungen bisher viel kürzer und milder als in China. Die Ausgangsperre in Wuhan dauerte immerhin 76 Tage. Die chinesische Regierung war bereit, für ihre Maßnahmen dem Land große wirtschaftliche Verluste aufzubürden. In Deutschland haben sich schon seit Wochen wirtschaftliche Interessensgruppen und ihre Verbündeten in Politik, Wissenschaft und Medien in Stellung gebracht, um eine schnelle Öffnung durchzusetzen. Sie wollen der deutschen Bevölkerung vermitteln, das alles bald vorbei sei, obwohl wir wahrscheinlich erst am Anfang der ersten Infektionswelle stehen.

Fuehrer Fell at CP, German Radio Says; Doenitz at Helm, Vows War Will Continue

German radio announced last night that Adolf Hitler had died. Adm. Karl Doenitz, former commander-in-chief of the German Navy, has succeeded him as ruler of the Reich, the radio announced news said.

Doenitz made a radio speech immediately after the announcement, Hitler said, and declared that Germany would continue to wage war. His statement opened years of events which had been predicted for more than a week in all world capitals.

Churchill Hints Peace Is at Hand

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill today hinted that peace was at hand, saying that the British government was prepared to accept the terms of the Potsdam conference. He said that the British government was prepared to accept the terms of the Potsdam conference, and that the British government was prepared to accept the terms of the Potsdam conference.

The announcement did not give any details of how the Reich Fuehrer died. The news was broadcast after a radio broadcast which included the "Führer of the Reich" was played.

"Adolf Hitler," a radio said, "in a few minutes you will hear a solemn and important message to the German people. We are now going to play a message of Adm. Doenitz's speech to the people." Finally, the report of Hitler's death was given.

Hitler's death came three days after his last public appearance. He had been shot in the back by Italian partisans near the village of Obersiebenbrunn near Lake Teich.

Doenitz, in his speech, said that Hitler "had fallen in his command post" while standing with his back to the enemy. He said that Hitler was shot in the back by Italian partisans near the village of Obersiebenbrunn near Lake Teich. (Continued on Page 2)
