

True Heroism

But our real best, perhaps only hope, might lie in this image of of true heroism:

Shiv Ramdas: „If you think youre having a bad day, spare a thought for the helmsman who somehow managed to stick his giantass ship sideways into the goddamn Suez Canal & blocked it into literal gridlock & is currently costing every seafaring nation of Earth like millions of dollars every hour.“

Die Kommentare des Tweets zum obigen Foto sind manchmal zum Kringeln: „I wonder if they told the operator what to expect when he got there, or just left it a surprise.“ Die Quelle des Fotos (und noch anderen) ist übrigens BBC: „Owner of cargo ship blocking waterway apologises“.
