HITLER DEAD

Fuehrer Fell at CP, German Radio Says; Doenitz at Helm, Vows War Will Continue

German radio announced last night that Adolf Hitler had died. Mrs. Karl Burson, former communications officer of the German Navy, has corroborated his death of the Nazis. The radio announcer went on to say:

The radio made a radio speech more than after the announcement, Doenitz said, and declared that Germany would continue its fight war. He also said that German soldiers which had been present for more than a week in all world capitals.

The announcement did not give any details of how the Reich German had. The news was broadcast after a radio broadcast which said that "Fuehrer of the Gods," was placed.

"I believe, actually," a voice said, "in a few minutes you will hear a speech and important message to the German people. We are now going to play a statement of Doenitz's speech to the people."

Finally, the report of that speech was given.

Hitler's death came three days after his capture in Berlin. The Reich Marshal of Italy, was killed by
